For Your Information

Your next newsletter will be published on April 1st. If you have an article to put in it please have it to me by March 20th. Starting with the May newsletter we will be back to publishing once a month.

Voice of the Vice

Winter is certainly making us all look forward to the 2014 camping season. Both of our campgrounds need your help to open, please consider a chapter outing the weekend of April 19th.

If you are considering a run for office please make sure you get the paper work in by the deadline.

This year's board of directors meeting will be at Bellevue, remember your voice is not heard if your chapter is not represented, see you there May 3rd.

Once again Double Dozen and the Duneland Winnies are co-hosting the pig roast and Pointin Fingers Band Memorial Day Weekend don't miss this event! Another event that Blossomland and the Winnies are organizing is happening May 16,17 in Kalamazoo. We are staying at Markin Glen County Park. They have 38 modern campsites and early reservations can be made, cost is $26 a night plus a $5 res fee. A schedule of events for the weekend to include Brewery tours and tasting, and a list of local golf courses plus an evening potluck and campfire. Please contact me for more information.

I have a brick order that will go out soon please consider a brick for both campgrounds and remember half the cost goes for campground beautification projects. Stay warm and we look forward to seeing everyone in the spring.

In Remembrance

On January 14th, TTCM lost another member, George Fergusson, husband of Ole, member of Happy Wanderers. Please keep his family & friends in your thoughts.

Election Information

Members wishing to run for officers of TTCM must turn in their resume to the MAL President before May 1st. Charles Dickinson is the MAL President. His address is 1110 S. Luce Ave., Fremont, MI 49412.

Happy Wanderers

The Happy Wanderers met despite the weather old Mother Nature is throwing our way at the home of Mary & Merle Bonter in Ravenna.

It wasn't supposed to snow until later Saturday night, but of course about 2:30pm it really started in. Some left early to avoid the darkness and the blowing snow which was already drifting snow banks over the roads. We had a lot of conversation about what we are doing this winter – like blowing out our drive-ways – what fun! I certainly envy those where it's warm. I hear they're getting rain but at least you don't have to shovel it. You might need a boat before it's over.

Happy Wanderers want to extend our sympathy to the family of Irving & Kathy Craft. Irv passed away this past winter.

Also, our organizational meeting will be held in March, location is not decided yet. Campground rally schedules will be available and also By-Laws.

Everyone should "Think Spring" so we can get our rigs ready for camping.
